

Zazu

Written by Kreugh and Tom

Zazu was unwanted by a relative of her elderly owner, Zazu was surrendered to a local shelter. In poor physical condition and discomfort, Zazu was rescued from a local shelter. After in-depth medical testing to confirm her good health and getting her teeth cleaned, she was adopted by Kreugh and Tom in Bel Air, Maryland. They had wanted to find a “little Foxie that needed us as much as we needed her” and Zazu was the perfect fit!

Now Zazu has a loving family, soft bed, fun toys and a secure yard to romp in. We see happy times ahead for this senior Foxie!
