

We recently received a letter, with a few photos enclosed, from one of our past "clients", Miss Tallulah. As you can see, she has made The Big Time!

I Led Three Lives

My name is Tallulah. My first life was terrible. I lived in a puppy mill in the Bronx which was run by a horrible man who mistreated me and 50 other Wire Hair Fox Terriers. When I was 2, the ASPCA rescued us and a nice couple in Manhattan adopted me. I lived there happily for the next 11 years, but hated the noise of the city and, truth be told, really, really wanted to be an only dog.

So, with the help of Cammy from American Fox Terrier Rescue, I found my current home. It's the best of all worlds – I live in a wonderful house in New Jersey with my OWN lake where I love to swim and chase geese!

My new Moms work on Broadway, so I get to hang with stars.

With the name Tallulah, what else would you expect?

And thank you to all of our supporters for your donations and support of American Fox Terrier Rescue. Your support means dogs like Tallulah get a second chance at a great life. Thank you all!
