

JINX'S STORY

Jinx is a 13 year old male that desperately needs to learn that humans love him and how to live in a home. Jinx is doing well in a crate, needs work on his leash walking skills and actually needs to learn his name. Jinx would do well with female dogs and older children. Jinx appears to have a little trouble seeing when the lighting is poor and trying to walk in unfamiliar territory. He is neutered and has recently had a dental. Jinx is a very handsome dog and I know he'll make a great pet once he's given a chance. Please fill out an application and ask about fostering Jinx.
